Auditor Rutherford by Mr. W. M. Hunt, with having twice drawn commutation money for the same period while a disbursing officer of the Government in North Carolina during the war, is being looked into by Secretary Boutwell, and the indications so far, are not favorable for Mr. Rutherford.

It is asserted, with more certainty It is asserted, with more certainty than ever, that there will be a vacan-cy at the head of that bureau very shortly."

Under date at the 2d instant Secretary Boutwell saks for an appropria-tion of $1,232,169 73 to supply deficien-cles in some of the departments. Among the items we have such as 000 for provost marshals and war de- | co. partment detectives, and $10,000 extra for White House repairs-refitting New Bedford, Massachusetts, the stables, perhaps; but the most im portant is one of $851,305 89 for Mr. Boutwell's own department. The on the ice. The ice broke and two regular appropriations for the items ready expended. In Mr. Boutwell's own department the increase demanded is nearly two-thirds of the regular appropriation. If the general deficiency bill is to be like this particular measure the annual cost of the government is one-half greater than the very large amount now before Another Radical trick is to be attempted on the house during the present session. A Washington corespondent says: "At the last session Mr. Hoar introduced a bill which had for its object the centering in the general government the entire school system of the United States. Owing to the vigilance and active op- LOUIS HANAUER, E. P. BOLLING, position of the Democrats it was fied the bill, and place' it in the hands of Mr. Pierce, of Mississippi, for introduction.
